Take a CECILIAN With You to Your Country Home.

The Cecilian is such an exhaustless spring of entertainment that no home is complete without one. In a country home, especially, it is so great an aid to the hostess in keeping things lively that it is worth the price many times over.

The Cecilian doesn't produce the mechanical, street-piano kind of music that disgusts you so much in most piano players—far from it. Its power of expression is so all-embracing that a piece depending upon the finest tone shading can be played as well as a rag-time jingle.

New Cecilians are worth $225 Cash.
$250 on Time.

We have several almost new Cecilians in perfect order that we can sell at prices Ranging from $125 to $195.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Formality Gives Way to Open Air Pleasures.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

RECENT AND FUTURE EVENTS

TALKED OF.

Summer Plans of Well-Known Person- ages — Travel Notes.

The charms of open-air life are re-established and enter entirely into the daily program. Few departures from town are as yet for anything but short stays, and it begins to look as if the June brides would have as large an admiring contingent as helped to make the Easter weddings so fashionable. The suburban parties thus far given have been eminently successful in the way of genial weather and interesting attendance, and the remaining events on the cards will be no less attractive. The so-ciabilities lately for the visiting Colonial Dames exemplified anew the hospitality of the resident society and individual members. The presence here, coming and going to and from the home of Washington of the Mount Vernon Association will afford other pleasant reasons for bringing friends together.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst is on from New York for another visit to Representative and Mrs.
Hearst and to take part in the family joy over the presence of her baby grandson.
Mrs. Hearst will attend the annual council of the Mount Vernon Association, which begins next week, and in whose projects she has been so interested and generous.

Mrs. J. T. Swann will close her 15th street home during the coming week and go to Princeton, N. J., where her participation in the numerous social events of the spring and early summer is so desired by her friends there and where her residence is the rendezvous of so many delightful people. During the past winters Mrs.
Swann has continued the elegant hospitality with which she has been so long identified in this city, and very lately gave a luncheon of eighteen covers, at which the guests were from both resident and official circles.

The Japanese minister will entertain at dinner Monday night.

The Austrian ambassador and Mme.
Hergelmuller will go to Bar Harbor for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frank Moore are again at 1828 S street, after a winter spent in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthington announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Allen Starr Worthington, to Mr. Edgar Carlos Riebe of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Droop and the Misses Droop will leave for the North German Lloyd steamer Princess Alice for Europe. They will return to Washington in September.

Miss Wilson of East Millstone, N. J., is the guest of Miss Emory at the latter's home, 1578 Harvard street.

Mrs. Charles H. Verrill of Chevy Chase will be at home to members of the Washington Club Thursday, May 12, from 3 to 6.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Steinem and Mrs. D.
Lisberger have moved to their new home, 1100 P street northwest.

Mrs. William J. LaVare, who has been critically ill at her residence, 1417 22d street northwest, for the past week, was reported somewhat better today.

Senator and Mrs. Dryden closed their Washington residence today, and accompanied by Colonel and Mrs. Kuser and other members of their household, went to Atlantic City for a fortnight's stay. After their seaside visit they will go to their summer home, at Bernardsville, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henry White have gone on a winter trip, expecting to visit the St. Louis fair on their return home in June.

Mrs. Edward H. Droop of 1483 Columbia road has discontinued her Mondays at home for this season.

Mrs. G. F. Lippitt will sail for Europe May 14, to continue her musical studies.

Capt. and Mrs. Wm. M. Cruikshank are visiting Mrs. Cruikshank at 1227 31st street, Georgetown, for a few days.

Mrs. G. Frank Lippitt will soon go abroad for the purpose of pursuing her studies in music. She will be in Berlin until fall.

Mrs. Goodall, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this city for several weeks, will return next week to her home in Bennington, Vt.

Mrs. Anna Yewell and little daughter Anna and Master Edward Yewell of Baltimore, Md., are visiting Mrs. Grace Hays Lowe.

Mr. John G. Price and wife of Baltimore, Md., are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Hays.

The marriage of Mr. James L. Smith and Miss Margaretta Moreland took place last Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of Rev. Dr. Mott, in the presence of a small company of friends and relatives.
The bride was attended by Miss Mary Moreland as bridesmaid, while Mr. Eugene Moreland was best man. A reception followed the ceremony at the future residence of the couple, where congratulations were extended and a pleasant evening enjoyed.
The bride received many handsome and ornamental presents. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. P. P.
Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moreland, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mueller, Mr. Matthews, Miss Mary Reith, Mr.
Eugene Moreland, Mr. H. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Boose have returned home after a visit to their brother-in-law, Jas. S. Hays of 1313 Potomac street.

The C. H. K. Club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ethel Humphrey, 5 10th street southeast.
Mrs. Miller, president, presiding. After business transactions the social hour was opened with a piano solo by Mrs. McCullough, followed by a greatly enjoyed comic address by Mr. LaVare. Several other recitations and songs were also given. The meeting had a full attendance of members, with several visitors, and concluded at a late hour with refreshments.

The Revellers, a social club, organized the latter part of last fall, held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday night at the residence of Miss Maudie Haines, 600 12th street northeast. Several games of progressive Rummy were played, the winners of the prizes being Mr. Clarence O. Wood and Miss Helen Mae Bacon, respectively.
The next meeting will be held on the 16th instant at the residence of Miss Georgiana Maynard, 1012 9th street northeast.

Mrs. J. W. Simms and daughter, Miss Hattie, are again occupying their old home, 920 M street northwest, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Lincoln left yesterday for Fort Monroe, where they will remain for ten days or longer.

Last evening at the home of Miss Wood, 1710 Corcoran street, a surprise was given to Miss Wallis and Mr. Morgan in the shape of a kitchen shower. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wood and the Misses Wallis, Wood, Potter, Newton, Frisby, Hughes, Ross, King, Birch, Clarke and Skinner and the Messrs. Morgan, L. Kerr, E. W. Kerr, Tully, Hammond, Skinner, Wilson, Galaher, Holton, Watson, Moore, Kehoe, Shore, Stuart and McCulloch. The marriage of Dr. Herbert Morgan of the naval observatory and Miss Fannie Evelyn Wallis will take place shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sullivan have returned from their brief tour and will be at home to their friends at the Ontario after May 15.

Miss Ina Chase Steele sails for Europe next Tuesday and will join her aunt and cousins, Mrs. A. G. Mills and the Misses Mills, in Florence, where they will remain through June, July and August. They will spend in the mountains of Italy. During Miss Steele's visit abroad she will devote much time to her studies. She will return here in September.

Mrs. Reginald De Koven will spend most of the summer in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page welcomed several hundred guests last night to musical.

Mrs. Charles C. Worthington of Tarrytown, N. Y., announced yesterday that the engagement of her daughter, Miss Julia, to Justin C. Walker, a son of John Erben Walker, had been broken by mutual consent, and that the invitations had been recalled. Miss Worthington and Mr. Walker had been engaged for about two years, and were to have been married on May 21.

The Russian embassy will be established at Bar Harbor during the summer, as Count Cassini cannot take his usual summer vacation to Europe.

The Congenials will give a dance Wednesday, May 11, at National Rifles' armory.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Collins of 715 North Carolina avenue gave a party for their little son Thomas Wednesday evening, the date being his fourth birthday.

Our Boys.

The benefit of St. Agnes' Home to be given by amateurs at the National Theater May 21 at 8:15 is attracting much attention from the world of society. The patronesses are Mrs. Gouverneur, Mrs.
Greely, Mrs. Bradford, Countess Esterhazy, Miss Myer, Miss Janin, Misses Kid-bey, Mrs. McAbby, Mrs. Fairbanks, Mrs.
Gadsby, Mrs. Mcowan and Mrs. Andrews.
Mrs. T. W. Beale is chairing the play, and has engaged Mr. Robert Hickman as manager. The company is composed of Miss Beale, who takes the part of the poor cousin, and is most charming in her bright, vivacious style; Miss Nordstrom, as the heiress, is faultless; Miss Carmody, as the maid, is most effective. The play is a comedy, and cannot be excelled in its rendition of that character; Miss Clements, as maid, is cute and fetching. The men are all clever in their parts. Mr. Lay and Mr. Worthington taking the principal characters, Mr. Bradford, Mr. Finley and Mr. Finch complete the cast.
